

Crime Prevention Through Environmental Design

- The front door should be visible from the driveway
- All outside doors should be well lit
- Shrubbery should be no more than 3 feet high for visibility

- Landscaping should not create blind spots for hiding
- Open green spaces/parks should be located so that they can be observed from nearby homes
- All homes should be clearly identified by street numbers that are at least 4" high